Dayna has been entrusted with the financial operations for every DeLaPorte & Associates, Inc. (DLP&A) office. Her responsibilities include cash management, multi-state tax and government reporting as well as daily accounting. Dayna also acts as a liaison to professional associates and vendors, aiming to maintain the integrity and excellent reputation DLP&A has diligently established.

Dayna provides timely and accurate information to management that is vital for making financial decisions affecting both short term and long range planning. She considers the owners and employees of DLP&A as her clients and continually looks for ways to better serve them, allowing our staff to concentrate and focus on all DLP&A clientele.

Dayna earned a BBA with concentration in Accounting from the University of New Mexico. In June 1997, she became licensed as a Certified Public Accountant.
