

Allen Christy Consultant

Allen is a private consultant for DLPA who holds B.S. Business, M.S. Management with 34 years in primarily the mining business.

He has significant experience and expertise in facilitation, leadership coaching and teambuilding. His additional experience in development of safety leadership programs and operational efficiency improvement initiatives, round out his overall skills and ability.

Significant achievements include:

- ⊗ The development of many key / successful leaders over length of career.
- ⊗ Multiple international and cultural experiences that have developed ability to interact effectively across a broad range of clients.
- ⊗ Being able to work closely with some of the most knowledgeable business consultants on the circuit has given me the ability to use multiple tools to solve business challenges.
- ⊗ Have created and implemented highly successful employee selection and development programs for industry.

Industry Experience:

- ⊗ 34 years in mining with progressive assignments in operations, maintenance, human resources, labor relations, safety, training and development.

Areas of expertise:

- ⊗ Project management
- ⊗ Facilitation
- ⊗ Supervisory / Leadership coaching
- ⊗ Efficiency and Effectiveness

Awards / Certifications / Honors

- ⊗ Certified MSHA Instructor both Surface and Underground Mining
- ⊗ Certified MSHA Electrical
- ⊗ Twice awarded Presidents Award as an employee of BHPBilliton
- ⊗ Hold FAA Private Pilots license
- ⊗ Given awards for active involvement in state and federal land use committees and planning processes.
- ⊗ Have served on the local United Way Board of Directors