

Cindy Gregory

Account Manager & Senior Consultant

Cindy earned a BS and an MBA in Management Information Systems from the College of Santa Fe in Albuquerque, NM. Prior to joining DeLaPorte and Associates, Inc., in 1998, Cindy served as the Leadership and Management Trainer for Sandia National Laboratories.

During her time at Sandia National Laboratories, Cindy was the Project Leader for Pre-Management Program that included both developing and training high-level staff members on the fast track for management. She was also the Project Leader for New Manager Program that included developing, coordinating, and training newly promoted managers. She was also the Program Manager for Office Administrative Assistants.

Cindy's areas of expertise include: Leadership and Management Consulting and Training; Program Management; Managing Diversity; Facilitation; Strategic Planning; Performance Management; Design and Development of Leadership Development Programs; Organizational and 360 Assessments.

She has trained over 350 Leadership/Management classes in three years including Leading in Challenging Times, The Leader Manager, Social Styles, Customer Service, Supervisory Leadership Series, Developing Leadership Excellence, and Negotiating to Yes. Additionally, Cindy has done extensive consulting and coaching of supervisors in several different companies at executive levels as well as first-line supervision to improve their supervisory skills and increase productivity.

Some of the organizations Cindy has worked with are:

- 🌐 Chino Mines Company
- 🌐 Phelps Dodge
- 🌐 BHP Minerals