Jason is the CEO of DeLaPorte & Associates, Inc., DeLaPorte Global Impact (a non-profit organization), and 29000FEET.com.

He received his BBA from Baylor University and has been working with DeLaPorte & Associates, Inc. in numerous capacities since 1994.

Jason's desire to exceed the customer's expectations, the ability to synthesize information quickly and effectively, a genuine interest in helping clients develop their employees, and an uncanny knack of connecting with people and bringing out their best are contagious. We find that these strengths allow Jason to perpetuate long-term relationships with clients and allow DeLaPorte & Associates, Inc. to provide the system-solutions required to help organizations move closer to world class.

Jason has worked in more than 25 states and several foreign countries. Some of the organizations Jason has worked with include:

- ⊕ Alliance Data Systems
- ⊕ The Associates
- ⊕ Bausch & Lomb
- ⊕ BHP Minerals
- ⊕ BMW
