Keri joined DeLaPorte and Associates, Inc. in January 2004, bringing a unique blend of work experiences. Her experiences include training, staff and curriculum development, sales, marketing, business owner, as well as concentration on exceptional customer service. She has excelled in each field within her respective companies.

She is an energetic and enthusiastic person with a natural gift for successful multi-tasking. With over 18 years sales experience and the knowledge gained from both regional and national companies, her tenacity has produced positive effects on companies' bottom lines via generation of new business and growth within existing clients. Her sales philosophies are simple: follow up, follow through, and take time to develop the relationship along the way.

While employed at Coca-Cola, Dr Pepper of Albuquerque, the management believed in training their employees. This was Keri's first exposure to DeLaPorte and Associates, Inc. She was both an attendee and graduate of the Supervisory Leadership Series. The value of this course, once the knowledge was taught, absorbed, applied and shared with others was life changing. This training had immediate impact on her life both personally and professionally.

With a personal passion to make an impact in the lives of others, she is thrilled to be a member of the team at DeLaPorte and Associates, Inc. Keri is excited to present powerful programs as well as interact with corporations and their employees as they experience the difference DeLaPorte can make in their organizations and their personal lives.

Keri successfully facilitates these courses by Wilson Learning: Social Styles, Leading in Challenging Times, Counselor Salesperson, and Creating Competitive Business Solutions. Allagi Learning Courses in the Developing Leadership Excellence Series.

Keri enjoys being a personal coach. Her coaching experiences include life coaching, sales, management and performance coaching. She is pursuing a coaching designation with Newfield Network and aiming at ICF certification in 2008.

DLP&A clients Keri has worked with include:

- ⊗ Co-delivering SEAL: Supervisory Essence and Leadership™ to USDA, Forest Service Leaders
- ⊗ Lockheed Martin
- ⊗ Sandia National Laboratories
- ⊗ Syracuse China - a unit of Libbey Glass
- ⊗ Bausch & Lomb
- ⊗ Lucky Friday Silver Mine
- ⊗ Navajo Refinery

Keri is an active participant with Toastmasters International and currently is an ATM-B. She has presented to youth audiences at Regional DECA leadership conferences in San Diego, Phoenix and Albuquerque. She seeks opportunities to be a presenter or keynote speaker and is available to address many business areas that interest leaders of today.

Residing in Albuquerque with her husband Doug and their two dogs, Keri enjoys spending time with family and friends, working out, home remodeling projects and gardening. She is an artist studying watercolor and pastel painting.
