

Mary Ober Consultant

Mary has over 20 years of experience as a Human Resource Executive. Her expertise and passion are in planning and delivering strategic HR practices and programs to increase organizational effectiveness. She currently consults in areas of culture analysis and transformation, change management, leadership development and performance management practices.

Mary's most recent corporate position was VP of HR at Blockbuster with responsibilities for areas of Organization Effectiveness, Employee Relations, Recruiting and Training and Development. Prior to Blockbuster, Mary spent 10 years at Central and South West Company in Dallas as Director of Organization Change.

Leaving the corporate world full time, Mary now keeps in touch with her HR side as a consultant. Mary is also in the process of owning and operating a contemporary art gallery.